

Volunteer Policy

Volunteers are the lifeblood of the Genesis Trust. Each volunteer is highly valued for their skills, experience, dedication and compassion. We believe in creating a partnership with our volunteers, working together to achieve our Vision, Mission and Values. Genesis is an organisation founded and based on Christian beliefs and principles. Although we do not expect our volunteers to subscribe to the Christian faith we do ask that they understand, support and acknowledge these values.

Genesis Trust will:

- Treat all volunteers fairly, consistently and equally;
- Issue the Volunteer Handbook to all volunteers which will be updated from time to time;
- Provide and manage a formal volunteer application process;
- Provide volunteers with ongoing training and support appropriate for their roles;
- Provide the guidance and support required to carry out their assigned project role;
- Recognise and reward volunteers for their work;
- Ensure all volunteers are kept safe and insured whilst volunteering for Genesis Trust Bath.
